

Appliance

This patient has received an appliance to help growth occur more normally; to prevent an abnormality in growth to occur.

The appliance requires an extra effort at cleanliness and the eating of hard sticky foods while appliance is in place is discouraged.

Obviously the appliance should be periodically checked to assure it is doing the job intended.

Thank You for your interest in your child's oral health

Dr. Thafur Shemmeri